

Mo Fontaine: Picture "Homage to Paul Klee" (2022)

€2,600.00

Abstract art can also be appealing to illustrators. Mo Fontaine paints abstract mainly when she wants to free her head, filled with all kinds of figurations: Then all the heads, animals, flowers, etc. are sent on vacation and get a time-out. Without a specific pictorial idea, the painter then begins an adventure journey into the mysterious world of abstraction. For even abstracted forms and colors are, detached from mimesis and meaning, carriers and "equivalents" of moods and feelings.
