

Karin Döring: Picture "LICHTGESTALT XXIV [29]" (2025)

Medium: acrylic, relief structure, gilding with 24-carat gold leaf. This LIGHT FIGURE embodies the strength, elegance and harmony of the asana Virabhadrasana, also known as the peaceful warrior. The intense color composition of deep blue and green draws the viewer into a world of inner calm and strength. It is reminiscent of the endless expanse of the ocean and the constancy of the sky: symbols of steadfastness and serenity. The 24-carat gold plating runs through the picture like a luminous band of universal energy. The golden lines and surfaces emphasize the spiritual dimension of the warrior and lend the work its aura. With the gilding, I remind the viewer of the inner light that is awakened through yoga. This precious structure guides the viewer's eyes through the powerful, dynamic structure of the work.
