Heinz Stoewer:
Picture "sealights #2" (2023)

€1,500.00

The play of colors on the waves in the early morning inspired the artist to create this work. If you are out and about on the beach early in the morning or take a boat trip, you can experience the refraction of the morning light on the sea; this very special mood of a new beginning, of the dawning day. Heinz Stoewer has captured this mood here in an oil painting in abstract form and made it palpable for the viewer. Shades of pink and orange dance on the water, which shimmers in various shades of blue from ultramarine to turquoise. The painting was shown in the exhibition "It takes two to tango" at the Kunstturm Wolfratshausen in 2024. It is dated and signed on the back.
