€7,500.00

In this vibrant oil painting, I've channeled the boldness of pop art, the raw emotion of expressionism, and the wild hues of fauvism to create a tapestry of feelings. The strokes are alive with dynamic energy and color, conveying a story of awakening and the complexity of human emotion. It's a piece that sings with passion and will infuse any space with its pulsating vibrancy, encouraging viewers to embrace their own colorful spectrum of emotions.
