

Fehrmann: Picture "By the lake" (2023)

€2,850.00

As often as it fits the time, in every season, I enjoy the nature and silence of the surrounding lakes. There is much to discover, birds sing in every bush, cranes fly and there is a sparkle in the air. Clouds pile up and are in competition with the blue of the sky. With the different materials acrylic and coal I have tried to capture this atmosphere.
