

Ilona Schmidt: Picture "Looking for peace" (2020)

€1,300.00

Looking for Peace is an expressionistic portrait painted on an old jute sack. The rough and tactile surface of the jute fabric gives the image a unique texture. In the center of the portrait is the peace sign, painted directly in the eye with an arrow pointing to the sign. This symbol is the focus of the image and symbolizes the search for peace. The large blue eyebrows are particularly eye-catching and stand out, giving the portrait a striking expressiveness. The blue lips complement the overall image and contribute to the artistic representation. Image signed and dated
