

Julia Pasinski: Picture "Before departure" (2023)

€1,800.00

The image captures a magical moment in nature: a group of young storks gather in a harvested field, ready to begin their great journey to Africa. The golden straw remains of the field glow in the soft light of late summer, providing a warm contrast to the slender black and white silhouettes of the storks. Their long legs and outstretched necks are clearly visible as they move among themselves as if discussing their upcoming journey. The painting is signed on the front and back. On the back it is also dated.
