Sibylle Bross:
Picture "Morning light" (2022)

€2,600.00

A mother is on the beach with her children in the morning. The mother sits on the edge of the shallow water and watches her children play. It is low tide and the water behind the sandbank has warmed up in the sun so that the children can splash around devotedly for a long time. In the background you can see walkers and sailing ships. The dominant colors are a light blue and ocher. A delicate purple tone gives the water contour. The artist stands with her easel on the beach and puts the motif directly on the spot out of the paint, with impasto brushstrokes with her oil paints in light and color.
