

Ilona Schmidt: Picture "When the city tells... Work no. 10" (2023)

€1,200.00

Picture from the series "When the city tells..." Work no. 10 Every city tells its own story, sometimes loudly, sometimes quietly, but always intensely. Abstract expressive paintings entitled "When the city tells" capture the unique atmosphere and multi-layered stories of a city. These images reflect the different facets of a city, from loud and lively moments to quiet and reflective moments. The intensity of these images lies in their ability to capture the emotions and impressions that make up a city. Through the use of abstract shapes, colors and textures, the diverse narratives of the city are visualized, inviting the viewer to contribute their own interpretations and experiences. "When the City Tells" is a tribute to the unique power and beauty of urban environments. Signed and dated on the back
