

Viktor Lau: Picture "Over seven bridges" (2024)

€4,950.00

The song "Über sieben Brücken musst du geh'n" by Karat was the inspiration for the picture. Accepting the adversities of life and preparing for them. Hence the knight on his steed. The castle as the destination of the journey, the longed-for land or state. I chose Marburg Castle because I live not far from it. It stands majestically and loftily above the town.
