€850.00

The small abstract painting entitled "Wayside" shows a variety of vibrant colors and shapes. The background consists of a mixture of warm and cool tones that blend together harmoniously. Abstract flowers in bold colors such as magenta, yellow and orange bloom on the hills, adding vibrancy and dynamism to the landscape. The flowers are painted with gestural strokes and thus appear almost wild and uncontrolled. All in all, the painting "Wayside" conveys a sense of freedom, nature and an unknown, exciting path waiting to be explored. The abstract depiction allows the viewer to find their own interpretation of the landscape and evoke emotions.
