

Ilona Schmidt: Picture "Flower poetry" (2025)

€1,500.00

This picture captures the essence of a vibrant sea of flowers. The soft pinks and bold reds seem like petals carried on the wind, while the darker accents add depth and contrast. The result is a powerful harmony reminiscent of the timeless beauty and emotional whisper of a landscape in bloom. "Blossom Poetry" invites you to experience the living language of nature in an abstract form.
