

Marina Krasnitskaya: Picture "Falling apples" (2023)

€5,600.00

The apple as a symbol has always played an important role in painting. I wanted to depict lightness, weightlessness, bright colors and the tart, aromatic taste of apples. The background of the painting is made of multi-layered iron oxidation and changes its sheen slightly depending on the lighting in the room. Thin graphic lines are made of genuine 24-carat gold and give the picture depth and radiance. The picture can be hung vertically or horizontally.
