

Marina Krasnitskaya: Picture "Composition I" (2024)

€850.00

The painting shows a unique depiction of apples in different colors and shapes. The artist has painted the details of the apples with great care and precision, realistically depicting the texture and appearance of the fruit. The color palette ranges from bright red to soft green and golden hues. The painting radiates a fresh and healthy atmosphere and invites the viewer to discover the beauty and diversity of the apple world. The edges are finished with real 24 carat gold, which gives them a very special effect. The golden finish frames the paintings in an elegant way and creates a frame that draws the viewer's attention to the artwork.
