

Ute Bivona: Picture "Get Out Of Your Shell" (2022)

Hiding, putting your light under the baffle, not daring - that makes no sense. Shine, show what you can do, who you are, dare! Only in this way will you attract the people who are "right" for you, who support, encourage, love you. The background is a neutral and grayish turquoise, which makes the bright and vibrant colors shine especially bright. The numerous layers provide the Geleenheit to step back again and again, to look at the works, to consider what is missing, what pleases, what does not, what needs to be supplemented, what colors will be applied next.
