

Karin Döring: Picture "FLOWERS IN FEBRUARY" (2023)

€1,700.00

The painting contrasts with strong magenta and purple tones, which are interrupted by bright accents in yellow-green, turquoise and a fluorescent pink. This color combination lends the artwork a lightness and cheerfulness that brings color to the viewer's soul. The colors are deliberately at odds with the cold season and convey a feeling of warmth and sunshine, which we particularly long for at this time of year. "Flowers in February" is a colorful and inspiring work of art that delights the viewer with its intensity and energy. It is a work of art that leaves you with a feeling of joy and lightness and brings color into your everyday life.
