

Sandra Gebhardt-Höpfner: Picture "A Promise Of Spring 1" (2023)

My magnolia tree in the garden in the warm light of the setting sun. A promise of spring. At last it is getting warm. The sun shows through the dark gnarled branches packed with blossoms. The colors are pink, orange, yellow, green, light blue and white. The sides are also painted. The picture can be hung directly without a frame with the attached hook.
