

Ilona Schmidt: Sculpture "Hold me" (2023)

€850.00

Hold me is a figurative sculpture depicting a highly abstracted couple. The two torsos are joined together and symbolize a close connection. The ribbon that connects the bodies stands for the emotional bond and holding each other. This figure embodies the importance of closeness, support and cohesion in a relationship. The sculpture was modeled from clay and finished with cold patina after firing, the base is made of metal. The sculpture is signed. The dimensions include the stand.
