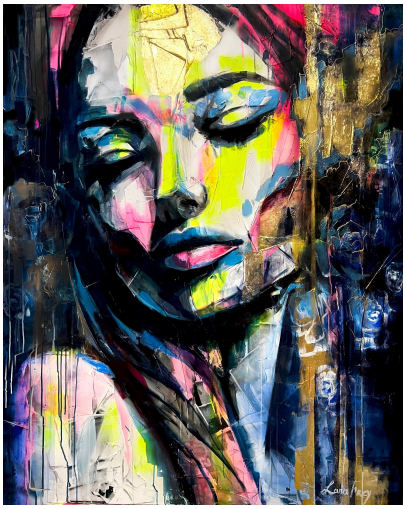
artSOLITAIRE.



Lana Frey:
Picture "Azura" (2023)

€8,900.00

Long ago, when the world was still young and fresh, a goddess named Azura flourished in a garden of heavenly harmony. Her eyes shone with a deep blue light, like a reflection of the sky itself. Azura was the guardian of dreams where visions were born, and the comforter of those who wandered the dark paths of life. One day, as the stars began to fade and the colors of the world faded, Azura decided to bring light and joy back into the hearts of mortals. She created magical flowers glowing with blue light and scattered them across the earth. From that day forward, those who found these flowers received the gift of Azura's inspiration and protection.

Product link: https://www.artsolitaire.arsmundi.de/en/lana-frey-picture-azura-2023-a1000115297/