

Lana Frey: Picture "Lotos" (2024)

€7,500.00

In ancient times, when the world was still inhabited by gods and beings of light, a great legend grew up about the girl Lotus. One day, at the moment when Lotus had reached her greatest age, her heart was filled with a lingering desire to seek something more than the world in which she lived. She embarked on a long and dangerous journey through dark forests and gloomy mountains, searching for answers to the questions her dreams carried. Eventually, she discovered a secret place where the most beautiful lotuses grew, gently rising above the waters of the sacred lake. She found her true calling - to care for that which brings peace and harmony to the world.
