

Anja Struck: Picture "the kiss" (2016)

€2,200.00

Soft velvety colors that flow into each other. A young couple can be seen - they seem to be ballet dancers. They sit or squat on a green background: the stage, a meadow...? The man tenderly gives the woman a kiss on the cheek while she looks at the viewer. The play of light and shadow on the bodies of the two makes the picture very lively. At the same time, it radiates a lot of calm through the choice of colors. The image leaves the viewer much room for their own interpretation, their own feelings and thoughts.
