

Anja Struck: Picture "my thoughts fly away" (2017)

€3,600.00

A young man is lying on his back on a blanket, a towel or even a mattress. His arms are folded under his head, his eyes are closed, he seems to be dreaming. Around him a lot of green, maybe he is lying on a meadow? One almost thinks he is even floating slightly above the green landscape. The green meadow or landscape is depicted very loosely, almost abstractly. This leaves the viewer much room for their own associations or feelings. It is in any case a picture that invites you to dream.
