

Mina Ilic: Picture "Bear With Me" (2020)

€900.00

The "Moving Heads" series of paintings is about becoming more aware of our characteristics and personality traits. They are important predictors of our behavior and attitudes. Without a clear idea of one's preferences, it can be extremely difficult and confusing to make the right choice. Everyone's personality is unique, and knowing what makes us tick can lead to greater life satisfaction, better life choices and overall success in both our personal and professional lives. These artworks will help you realize your unique potential and create a life that feels full of energy and authenticity.
