

Ute Meyer:
Picture "Great black-backed gulls" (2010)

€2,000.00

I observed the great black-backed gulls fighting over scraps of fish from a fishing boat on the Shetland Islands. The picture was taken later in my studio in Flensburg. I was fascinated by the bright yellow/red of the powerful beak and the alert, lively eye of the bird. The two great black-backed gulls exude dynamic power and joie de vivre. The oil paints are applied to a self-primed canopy with four layers of primer. The picture is hung on a steel cable. The picture can be hung without framing. My signature is on the front.
