

Olamboray: Picture "A Blue Night in your Arms" (2024)

We're well and truly in Venice in this ultra-romantic setting for this secret rendezvous. My dog Laly Blue and her friend Giraffe are waiting for me on the other side of the canal to continue our journey. The couple embracing behind the white linen veil brings to life an almost fairytale-like scene, inviting contemplation and escape. This work will bring a touch of wonder and a breath of imagination to your space.
