

Mo Fontaine: Picture "The Deep - Deep Sea Fish" (2023)

€3,480.00

Pisces are often expelled and excluded by us humans from our personal, conscious world. They are nevertheless present, because they dwell indelibly in us: in dreams and in pictures they are parables for our inner form. Pisces archetypically symbolize a life from the depths of our soul and feelings, for fish, by analogy, live in the depths of water. To feel "like a fish in water" means to be in one's element, in one's center. The characteristic of Pisces is totality, since they are completely surrounded by water, that flowing element which also stands for our own emotional world.
