€3,300.00

In this dynamic expressionist artwork, the strength of the bull merges with the vibrancy of the brushstrokes to create a powerful expression. The bull's head, painted in bold expression, captures the essence of raw energy and strength. The round curves of the canvas embrace the subject and emphasize the infinity of the moment, while the timeless black background adds depth to the painting and draws the eye to the pulsating vitality of the bull. This round shape opens up a play of possibilities for how it can express itself in different settings - whether as the dominant center in a room or as a fascinating element in a variety of design arrangements. A work that transcends the boundaries of space and captivates the viewer with its movement and dynamism.
