Sabine Schramm:
Picture "Peony blossom (no. 221003)" (2022)

The flowers in her garden mean a lot to the artist - especially peonies, hydrangeas, but also rhododendrons, irises and the first flowers and blossoms in spring - like these apple tree blossoms - are a constant source of inspiration for her paintings. Each work is created either directly in her garden or from her strong visual and emotional memories, with her associated impressions as integral to the painting as the shapes, colors and especially the light.
